

TRAVEL+ LEISURE

8 New All-inclusive Resorts to Book in 2025 — Featuring Swim-up Suites, Incredible Restaurants, and More

Looking for your next getaway? These new all-inclusive resorts offer something for every type of traveler.

By Meagan Drillinger | Published on January 5, 2025

Far from their early days of generic buffets and predictable itineraries, today's top all-inclusive properties provide everything from bespoke dining experiences and immersive cultural activities to world-class wellness. Guests can savor a Michelin-star-worthy meal one evening and snorkel along a coral reef the next day — all without worrying about surprise costs.

We've seen a flurry of fabulous all-inclusive resorts open in the past few years, and 2024 was no exception. Looking ahead, a new wave of resorts is poised to raise the bar even higher in 2025. From eco-luxury in the Dominican Republic to a wellness oasis on the Red Sea, here are eight of the most exciting all-inclusive openings to book this year.

05
of 08

Miraval The Red Sea — Saudi Arabia

Rendering of guest room at Miraval The Red Sea. PHOTO: COURTESY OF MIRAVAL THE RED SEA

Miraval's first location outside of the U.S. will be nothing short of transformative. Sprawling across Shura Island in the Red Sea, this wellness-centric retreat blends luxury with mindfulness. Think 180 opulent villas, world-class spa treatments, and immersive culinary experiences like cooking in the Sensory Herb Gardens. The Life in Balance Spa boasts 39 treatment rooms offering innovative therapies, including a Hammam Journey and the famed Vasudhara water massage. Guests can enjoy yoga at sunrise or explore interactive mindfulness centers. Surrounded by untouched beaches and crystal-clear waters, Miraval The Red Sea promises a soul-refreshing escape when it opens in the fall of this year.